I, _____, have voluntarily submitted my application for registration as a student in the Paragon Martial Arts camps and programs. By submitting the application for membership, I certify that I am fully aware of and understand the inherent dangers in participating in activities involving Taekwondo and other martial arts, and of the basic safety rules and procedures, including, but not limited to, promotional rank testing, summer camps, and tournaments which I and/or my child(ren) might attend.

I understand and agree that the operators of the school, the American Taekwondo Association, its owners, the instructors, or any other student, will not be responsible for my/ my child's safety, nor at any time will any of these parties or individuals serve as a guardian of my/ my child's safety.

I understand and agree that neither the operators of the school, the American Taekwondo Association, its owners, the instructors, or any other student, their agents or assigns, or any other individual or entity associated with the American Taekwondo Association, may be held liable in any way for any occurrence or event in connection with my membership or participation in tournaments or camps which may result in injury or death, or any and all damages to me or to my family, descendants, heirs or assigns.

I understand and agree that in consideration of being allowed to be a student in this program, including tournaments, or summer camps, I hereby personally assume any and all risks involved in the connection with same; and furthermore, I release forever the aforementioned individuals and entities and any other individual or entity associated with this program, from any harm, injury or damage that may occur to me or befall while I/my child am/is a student in this program, including any and all risks connected therewith, whether foreseen or unforeseen, including any risks created and/or harm caused by any negligent act (excluding gross negligence or reckless behavior) or acts of any or all of the above-mentioned parties. Furthermore, I will hold harmless the above-mentioned parties from any claim by me, my family, my heirs, my personal representatives, or their assigns, arising out of my participation in the program, tournaments or summer camps.

I further state that I am of lawful age and legally competent to sign this agreement, and that my signing this agreement is my own free act. I also understand that the terms herein are contractual, and they are not a mere recital or simply for informational purposes.

I have read, understood, and fully informed myself of the contents of this agreement. I assume my own responsibility for my / my child's physical condition and capability to perform under the program, tournaments or summer camps in which I/she/he may participate.
