PARENT'S STRIPE: The "Red" Stripe

Red stripes are a parent awarded stripe for good behavior at home, school, and any extra curricular events or activities. The student must also be practicing karate, listening to parents, schoolwork, respect for people and things, basic discipline and all around good citizenship outside of karate. We award this stripe only after the student has achieved all his/her requirement stripes. If you wish to share your child's achievements share in the space below or on the back page.
